

---

 General Information

 What is your full name?

---

---

---

 How did you learn about DirectWomen?

---

---

---

 Have you previously applied to the DirectWomen Board Institute and, if so, in which year or years did you apply?

---

---

---

---

 Board and Management Experience

 Provide a description of all board and board committee positions that you have held. Your response should include corporate (public and private) and non-profit board positions. Identify the board committees on which you served.

---

---

---

 Summarize the nature/extent of your contact with -- and/or experience working closely/directly with -- corporate boards of directors.

---

---

---

 Summarize your management experience.

---

---

---

 Summarize any cross-cultural or international experience.

---

---

---

---

 Availability

 What restrictions, if any, does your current employer place on board service? Are there any other limitations on your ability to accept a corporate board position in the next three years? If so, please explain below.

---

---

---

 Optional Information

 Describe one or more situations in which you have been involved, the details of which demonstrate your potential as a board member. What particular skills and/or experience would you bring to the boardroom?

---

---

---

 Describe any specialized financial training, such as courses in accounting, auditing, reading financial statements, etc.

---

---

---

 List honors, awards, recognitions:

---

---

---

 What is your ethnic background?

---

---

---

 What is your age?

---

 Please provide any additional information or comments that might assist the Selection Committee in evaluating this application.

---

---

---

 Final Information

Please check the box below to indicate that you understand your application will not be considered without at least two letters of reference as described below, and will not be processed without payment of the $150 application fee.

I understand and acknowledge the above statement.

 The most effective references are usually from a CEO, board chair, or the managing partner of a law firm. Reference letters should include a description of your qualifications for board service, and an evaluation of your business skills and strategic judgment. Applicants are responsible for making sure reference letters are received by the December 9 due date. Reference letters can be uploaded directly by applicants, or emailed to Sarah Gevlin at sgevlin@directwomen.org.

 For payment of the $150 application fee, please mail a check made out to "DirectWomen/Tides Center" to:

Bobbi Liebenberg
Chair, DirectWomen
Fine, Kaplan and Black, R.P.C.
One South Broad Street, Suite 2300
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19107

To pay by credit card, please call Sarah Gevlin at (518) 929-4077 with your card number, expiration date, and billing address.
Applications will not be considered unless the application fee has been paid.